10. Reports and Comments

- A. Reports from members-Bill Spurlock is retiring from the Policy Board.
- B. ODOT news-Laura Chaney reporting that Adam Gentis is no longer with ODOT and they are looking for his replacement. ODOT is going through modernization and other than this it is business as usual.
- C. ASCOG news-Tom Zigler-ASCOG has a new Executive Director Perry Brinegar. Business as usual.
- D. SWODA news-CENA Applications and REAP applications are open. Aging Services working with the state and State Aging Services for new food service provider for 5 meal sites in SWODA region and all meal sites in the panhandle. Michael Ryburn and Lisa Church are working on ARPA funding and EDA grant opportunities.
- E. Staff news – Julie Sanders- 2020 Census numbers are starting to come out in Excel spreadsheet format. Maps for our region are becoming available.

Redistricting maps that were approved by legislature are having to be edited due to major changes in urban numbers. Infrastructure bill that was approved by Senate and that has been sent to the House has increases in TAP funding and Safe Routes to School funding—availability of this funding will be a few years down the road. Cities of Ryan, Bray, Comanche, and Duncan participated with Community Design and State Department of Health on Certified Healthy Communities grant process. Initial webinars have been completed and follow-up and review webinars are to come. Interactive Living Map for SORTPO Website is well underway and will be available for both Policy Board and Tech Committee review by the middle of September.
